UTHSCSA Toastmasters Club to Host Both Day and Evening Meetings

Do you dread speaking in public? Or do you have to do presentations for school or your job? Would you like to hone your leadership skills?

Then please join us at one of our daytime or evening meetings at the UTHSCSA Toastmasters Club.

To accommodate the needs of all UTHSCSA faculty, staff and students, the Club will offer both daytime and evening meetings beginning in January. Here are the dates and times:

January Daytime Meetings:
Tuesday, January 6th 12:00 – 1:00 in AAB 104
Wednesday, January 21st 12:00 – 1:00 in AAB 106

January Evening Meetings:
Tuesday, January 13th 6:30 – 7:30 at 5.503 Briscoe Library
Tuesday, January 27th 6:30 – 7:30 at 5.503 Briscoe Library

The UTHSCSA Toastmasters Club provides opportunities for staff, faculty and students to learn how to become more effective speakers and leaders through a supportive learning environment offered through meetings conveniently located on campus. Members learn the principles of communication and leadership in a friendly atmosphere, receive mentoring from experienced fellow Toastmasters, and have opportunities to practice new skill sets that can help them advance both personally and professionally.

To learn more about the meetings and/or the personal and professional advantages of joining the UTHSCSA Toastmasters Club, please contact Bonnie Taylor at taylorbs@uthscsa.edu or visit our website: http://uthscsa.toastmastersclubs.org/

Toastmasters is the world’s largest organization devoted to success through communication and leadership development.
